

Report of Seminar on Importance of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)

Date & Venue: 11-01-2019 in Room Number 103

Resource Person: Mr. Ajith Kumar, Advocate.

The major objectives of the seminar:

- To promote constant awareness about IPs
- To advice and guide faculty on the importance of IPR
- To encourage faculty members to carryout patent searches in-house and outside based on their research.
- To support common people to obtain protection for their inventions / innovative ideas

A seminar was conducted by Department of CSE on Intellectual Property Rights by Mr. Ajith Kumar to create a awareness among the faculties regarding IPR. It is very much essential in this world in order to protect the work like paper content, project etc, from getting misused by other. In regard to this resource person discussed the following topic:

- Intellectual Property Rights(IPRs) - An Introduction with need of its protection
- Procedure of Patent filing, Commercialization of patents
- What is Patent? Utility Patent
- Why should intellectual property be protected?
- How should intellectual property be protected

- Copyright and Trademark Management in India with case studies

Students and Faculty members were able to understand(Outcome)

- The Need and Significance of IPR
- Difference between Real and Unreal products
- Procedure of Patent filing
- Counterfeiting the unreal or similar products