

Session Report- Entrepreneurship Journey

Date: 4th October 2019

Time: 2 pm to 3.30 pm

Resource Person: Mrs Komal Prabhu, owner of Maharaja Group of Hotels

Topic: Entrepreneurship Journey

Mrs. Komal Prabhu addressing the gathering about her Entrepreneurship Journey

Mrs. Komal Prabhu an entrepreneur of Mangalore delivered a valuable talk on her Journey of Entrepreneurship to the first year MBA students and faculty. She narrated her first debut at Srinivas Hotel and Lodging at B C Road, Bantwal where she learnt her first lessons in Hotel Management. Being part of a highly conservative joint family, she learnt the art of cooking preparing food for family and many guests of the family. She shared her enterprising experiences at Maharaja Group of Hotels, which in the initial days went through a roller coaster ride but now has become a popular dining place in Mangalore. Mrs Prabhu conveyed powerfully how hard work, dedication, and desire to succeed in life makes an entrepreneur successful. She attributed her success to teamwork. She encouraged the budding management graduates to be entrepreneurs and pursue their dreams as there are a lot of opportunities in the business field. A total of 83 students attended the session. Students and faculty appreciated her experiential views and knowledge of the field.

Outcome: Students understood the importance of hard work and being focused in life. This session also helped students to understand their hidden potential to become an entrepreneur.
