Alva's Christmas: December 21, 2016

Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology celebrated Alva's Christmas in association with Alva's Education Foundation. Alva's Education Foundation organized a grand Christmas event where thousands of students witnessed a beautiful ceremony at Rathnakaravarni hall in Vidyagiri on December 21. Around 300 students clad in Christmas attire, sang carols and Christmas songs to entertain the huge gathering in a colorful program. The entire hall was bedecked with stars and lighting. Students' enacting the beautiful sight of the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem was most impressive of all. Bellary Bishop Dr. Henry D'Souza was the chief guest on the occasion and delivered the Christmas message where he dealt in brief on equality, love and peace. Christmas enlightens divine human values in holy community life, he said.

Alva's education foundation head Dr. Mohan Alva in his presidential address emphasized on the impact brotherhood can create in modern times and the implications if it does not exist. Alva's hospital ward has been named after Saint Mother Teresa of Kolkata and a special stature will be erected in her name within year, Dr. M Mohan Alva declared.

Alangaru parish priest Fr. Basil Vas, Saverapura parish priest Fr. Rakesh Mathias, Mandd Sobhann Gurkar Eric Ozorio, Pastor Aby Abraham along with several others graced the occasion. Prizes were distributed for deserving winners and dinner was served for all in the end.

ALVA'S DEEPAVALI – 2016

Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology celebrated Alva's Deepavali in association with Alva's Education Foundation. The campus of Alva's College Moodbidri was laden with events of cultural importance with just a few days to go for the Nudisiri. After 'Keraleeyam' the college hosted another grand event "Alva's Deepavali -2016", on Thursday, at Vanajakshi K Sripathy Bhat stage. The event stood for the revelation of local, national and international cultures.

Celebrations began with an attractive procession of different cultural troupes moving ahead of the dignitaries. There were Puthani, Kombu, Chende, dolu, Vadya, Srilankan instrumental troupes and many more in the procession.

Invitation of Alva's Deepavali – 2016.

The typical Deepavali traditions of Tulunadu such as Tulsi Puja, Saraswathi Puja, Lakshmi Puja, ayudha Puja, worship of farming instruments and cattle worship were performed by the Chairman of Alva's Education Foundation, Dr M Mohan Alva. The formality of the quintessential Tulu tradition 'baleendrapuja' was performed by Navneet Shetty Kadri.

Deepavali turned out to be a cultural festival alongside a festival of lights at Alva's College Moodbidri. Artistes from outside and students of the college presented 19 cultural forms of art, amidst 30000 spectators stretching in four hours. The performances presented were- Shringari Mela from Kerala, Mohini Attam, Yakshagana in two different forms, dance forms of Odisha, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Andhra and Manipur, Mallakambha, Bharathanatyam, Kathak, and a contemporary dance form. Another attraction which wooed the crowd was body building show. The stage was set for 17 Muscle builders from across the country to show their rippling muscles to a crowd that cheered them over and over again.

Passing the wishes of the festival, Chairman Alva's Education Dr M Mohan Alva said, 'Festivals create an environment of cultural harmony and teach us to forget our enmity and embrace one another in a bond of love'. Mijargutthu Anand Alva, Nitte University Vice-chancellor Dr Ramanand Shetty, Former Minister Abhaychandra Jain, and Alva's Education Foundation Trustees Jayashree Amarnath Shetty, Vivek Alva and Vinay Alva were also present.

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS 2017

Republic day was celebrated in the presence of 20,000 people at Puthige Shrimati Vanajakshi K. Shripati bayalurangamandira by Alva's educational institution on 26th January 2017.

The Alva's Republic Day celebration started off in all pomp and colour. The event was flourished with 100 tri colour flags fluttering high, more than 100 tri coloured umbrellas and about 4000 students forming the Indian flag which added to the glory of the 67th Republic Day Celebration of the AEF. With freedom in mind, pride in heart the celebration went off in all glory and honour. The event started off with the guard of honour of the chief guest. Shortly later, 18 contingents from Dakshina Kannada, Udupi and nearby colleges marched to the tune of the band. It was followed by the chanting of Vande Mataram lead by Ramesh Chandra and party from Bangalore and the hoisting of the flag by the chief guest I.N Rai, ex officer of the Indian Army. The Indian Flag fluttering high and proud flowed the fragrance of freedom, pride and independence into the hearts and minds of the people all over. The flag hoist was followed by the singing of the Integration song when the whole of the institution with fluttering flags sang the song out aloud.

Chief Guest I.N Rai, Ex-officer of the Indian Army, addressing gathering.

“We are on the threshold of becoming one of the super powers of the world if the nation comes together to stand up together said I.N Rai , ex officer of the Indian Army, who served the nation for 34 long years. He was speaking on the 67th Republic Day celebration held at Alva's Education Foundation. 67 years before, India was a land rich in resources and wealth. The spoil done to our country by the foreign powers still remain in our land but India still has the world's largest youth resources. Today India is backing away. Recent unpleasant crimes and incidents have backed India out of the tracks of its development. We are poor not because we have less resources but because we lack a positive attitude toward our motherland. Indian should awaken to the concept of “Swabhimana” and “Aathmagaurava” which will uplift India. Speaking on the occasion he said “he had never seen a more dynamic Republic Day celebration in his life where people are well organized, disciplined and massive. Expressing his pride for the nation he said” Be an Indian worth fighting for.”

Dr. M Mohan Alva, Chairman AEF presented memento to chief guest.

Captain Ganesh Karnik, MLC who was also present in his speech said “ India has become corrupt, lethargic, and a loud talking country after 70 years. Quoting from the words of General Chattrur he said “the safety, honour, welfare of my country should come first, the safety, honour, welfare of my men should come next and finally my safety, honour and welfare should come last. We should contribute all our might for the welfare of our country, he said.

The chairman of AEF, Mr. M. Mohan Alva, 250 ex officers of the Indian army along with their families and other delegates were also present during the programme.

Captain Ganesh Karnik, MLC addressed the gathering.

Around 20000 people attended the program.

Technical Talk:

A technical talk on “World water day-2017” presented by the resource person. He said World Water Day is an annual event celebrated on 22 March.

Resource person addressing the gathering.

The day focuses attention on the importance of universal access to clean water, sanitation and hygiene facilities in developing countries. The day also focuses on advocating for the sustainable management of freshwater resources. In 2017, the theme is "Why Waste Water?" which is about reducing and reusing wastewater.

The theme is a play on words as it relates to both: the aspect of wasting water and issues around wastewater, namely treatment and reuse. Wastewater is a valuable resource to help achieve the Sustainable Development Goal Number 6. One aspect of Target 6.3 is to halve the proportion of untreated wastewater and also to increase the recycling and safe reuse of water across the globe.

Session Closure:

Dr. H LAKSHMIKANTHA was honored by Principal Dr. Peter Fernandes. Mr. Shashikumar P M (VIII Semester) proposed the vote of thanks.
