Alva's Christmas Report: December 20, 2017

Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology in association with Alva's Educational Institutions celebrated "Alva's Christmas 2017" on December 20, at Nudisiri Vedhike Vidyagiri campus. Judicial Vicar of the Mangalore Diocese, Rev. Fr. Walter D'Mello addressed the gathering with his Christmas message. Belthangady Bishop Rev. Fr. Lawrence Mukkuzhy blessed the occasion. Alva's Educational Foundation Chairman, Mohan Alva and former minister Amarnath Shetty were on the occasion. Christmas is a symbol of peace, which has now grown into a worldwide symbol of celebration and the celebrations like here at Alva's are an ideal to the world, Belthangady diocese Bishop Rev Fr Lawrence Mukkui said.

Speaking at the inaugural of Christmas celebrations organised at Alva's Education Foundation at Rathnakaravarni Vedike at Vidyagiri here on Thursday, he said the festival conveys the message of peace orientated happiness and spreads the knowledge of good and bad. "May the festival be a medium through which relationships are enriched," he said. The celebrations began with a procession of students holding candles, flowers, and Santa Claus disguises. Konkani Sahitya Academy former chairman Roy Castellino, who was the chief guest, said that it is indeed a matter of pride that students from all religious backgrounds assemble here to celebrate Christmas. Alva's Education Foundation Chairman Dr M Mohan Alva said religion should be a leading light for the current generation and not a cause for inequality. "We must stay immune to the forces that attempt to break us in apart in the name of religion," he said. Dr. M Mohan Alva added that celebrations of religious festivals at Alva's are done with an objective to encourage students to connect with their religious identities as well as understand that of others.

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS 2018

Republic Day is celebrated every year on January 26 to honour the date on which the Constitution of India came into effect in 1950. To commemorate the triumph on a meaningful and colourful note, Alva's Education Foundation organized Republic Day festivity at Smt. Vanajakshi K Shripathi Bhat amphitheatre, on Friday, at Puthige, here.

Patriotic fervour pervaded the atmosphere as students, decked in colours of the National Flag, lined up at the venue with miniature flags in hand. Every corner of the venue was graced with vibrance, enthusiasm and bathed in the colours of saffron, white and green. Every face was a unique representative of patriotism and love toward India.

Chief Guests and Dr. M Mohan Alva at Republic Day 2018.

The special attraction of the day's festivity was the presence of former servicemen of the Indian Army gathered to witness the proceedings with utmost pride and honour. At the very outset, the march past by various NCC contingents of Army, Navy, Air Wing, Scouts and Guides, Rovers and Rangers from Bengaluru, Madikeri, Udupi, Moodbidri marked the beginning with their swing and sharp uniforms displaying their crucial role in nation building in a spectacular fashion. More than 1,200 cadets proved NCC's synonymity with discipline, sheer dignity and command.

Students were dressed in T-shirts of the colours of the national flag and were made to stand in such a way that from an aerial view resembled 'INDIA' in textual form. The tricolours were designed in cylindrical forms that stood 20 feet high and 6 feet wide marked the entire circumference of the ground, within which the crowd of 35,000 saluted the Indian national flag. Flags, umbrellas, caps and t-shirts bearing the tricolours were waved during the rendition of the integration song, 'Koti Kantose'.

All Students waved national flag in air during the rendition of the integration song, 'Koti Kantose'.

After unfurling the national flag, Dr Vinay Hegde, chairman, Nitte Group of Institutions, expressing his astonishment said he was amazed by the type of discipline and grand celebration by the staff and students of Alva's Education Foundation. This institution is a perfect example for people to emulate for all those who are supposed to be educated, cultured and disciplined. "In these 69 years, many good things have happened. India is rapidly expanding in terms of industry and economy, but the moral values are going down. The most important thing is to develop a kind of personality the country will be proud of. The aim is to inculcate character and religious cordiality, without which our country cannot prosper," he said. He signed off with high hopes of great professional success for India.

Dr Vinay Hegde, chairman, Nitte Group of Institutions addressed the gathering. Alva's Education Foundation chairman Dr M Mohan Alva, trustee Vivek Alva and staff of the various institutions of AEF were present on the occasion.
