Alva's Christmas Report: December 18, 2019

Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology celebrated Alva's Christmas in association with Alva's Education Foundation on 18th December 2019 at Nudisiri Vedhike Vidyagiri Campus. The Nudisiri Vedhike of Alva's Education Foundation, Moodabidri, was beautifully decorated with twinkling stars, bright and colourful lights, a Christmas tree, a crib, all fronting a colourful backdrop in keeping with the occasion of Christmas 2019 on 18th December 2019. Indeed, Alva's Christmas came alive with an audience of over 4000 enjoying the Christmas celebration. The chief guest of the event Father Francis Xavier Gomes emphasized the ambience of Christmas and answered the question, why Jesus was born. "Every time we love one another, share, forgive and smile, it is Christmas. In the past, the personalities like Gandhiji, Mother Teresa strove hard to uplift the downtrodden and helped them voice for their sorrows. Today, in our society these kinds of personalities should be more, and through them, Jesus Christ's true principles could be achieved', he said.

Celebrating Alva's Christmas 2019 by cutting Christmas cake.

As a part of celebration Humanity Trust founder Roshan Belman was felicitated on the occasion. After receiving felicitation Roshan said that renunciation could be achieved by empathizing with every other person in and around us. This was followed by prize distribution for competitions conducted for carol singing, stars making of Udupi and Mangalore Diocese Churches. The winners were awarded cash prizes of Rs 10,000, Rs7500, Rs 5000 for first, second and third places respectively. The celebration also witnessed carol singing by more than 500 carolers, cutting of the Christmas cake, and a dance drama depicting the birth of infant Jesus, etc. Moodabidri Corpus Christi Church Parish Priest Father Paul Sequeira, Alva's Education Foundation Chairman Dr. M Mohan Alva, Christian Development Board Chairman Joylus D'Souza and AEF Trustee Vivek Alva were present among others.

The centre of campus at Vidyagiri welcomed the gathering with tricolour cylindrical shapes inducing the spirit of nationalism among all. The tricolour was unfurled by the chief guest Deputy Commandant & Chief Instructor Officer's Training Academy, Chennai, Major General A Arun, synchronized with national anthem. The whole crowd gathered for the celebration waved the flags with full spirit as and when the integration song 'Koti Kontonse' was sung.

After unfurling the flag, Major General A Arun said, 'Being patriotic does not just mean being in army, navy or NCC, it also mean being a teacher, doctor, tailor, mechanic and religious teacher delivering their responsibilities honestly. He added and said, it is very important how we lived, but not how we died. So everyone should lead life of a proud human citizen to his community and nation at large.

Major General A Arun addressed the gathering at Independence Day – 2019.

He said ‘‘Independence Day hold special significance for the citizens of India. It reminds the bloodshed and sacrifices made by our ancestors. Independence wasn’t gained in a day, nor did it come easy. It was an outcome of persistent struggle by our revolutionary freedom fighters’’.

On the occasion, Dr M Mohan Alva felicitated 2019 State PU Commerce topper Olvita D’Souza and 2019 State SSLC topper Sujnan R Shetty with Rs 2 Lakhs each, shawl and memento. ## REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS 2020

National Integration Splendour Displayed at Alva's Republic Day Celebration. The Republic Day celebrations are commemorated every year to honour the formation of the Indian constitution. As a part of this celebration, the Alva's Educational Foundation organized a grand ceremony, which withstood more than 30000 audiences in the Vanajakshi K Shripathi Bhat amphitheatre at Puthige here on January 26, 2020.

Former IPS Officer K Annamalai, unfurl the national flag.

Patriotic fervency penetrated the atmosphere as students, embellished in the colours of the national flag, lined up at the venue with miniature flags in hand. The special attraction of the festivity was the presence of 150 Ex-servicemen of the Indian army gathered to witness the proceedings with utmost pride and honour.

Former IPS Officer K Annamalai and Dr. M Mohan Alva Saluting national flag.

At the very outset, march past by more than 2400 NCC cadets from Udupi, Dakshina Kannada and Madikeri districts, 400 Scouts, Guides, Rovers and Rangers, 1200 NSS volunteers marked the beginning with their swing and sharp uniforms displaying their pageant in a disciplined manner.

Students were dressed in T-shirts of colours of the national flag and were made to stand in such a way that the aerial glimpse resembled “India” in textual form.

Subsequently, the integration song ‘Koti Kantose’ was sung by the cultural team of Alva’s Education Foundation for which the amassed gathering waved the miniature flags in unison throughout the rendition of the song. The amalgamation of the audience was a feast to the eyes and soul which grappled everyone’s attention with an overwhelming feeling of nationalism.

After unfurling the national flag, former IPS Officer K Annamalai said, “The dream of former president APJ Abdul Kalam that India should become a superpower by 2020 is still a distant dream. The best way to realize his dream is through involving ourselves in the process of nation-building and living a life of duty towards ourselves and the nation. Nation has given everything to us, but we ask honestly ourselves what we had given to the nation? Republic day is the best time which reinstates each citizen to bind towards his duties. He added and said, whatever may be circumstances, the nation should come first and then our religion, place and name”.

Former IPS Officer K Annamalai addressing the gathering.

Annamalai called upon the students to take pledge of “let this nation prosper, let nothing come before this from achieving all greater heights and what we all dreamt off”.

Alva's Education Foundation Chairman Dr M Mohan Alva, Trustee Vivek Alva, Vinay Alva, Greeshma Alva, Hana Vinay Alva, Meenakshi Jaykar Alva and others were also present on the occasion.

A BRIEF REPORT OF TECHNICAL TALK ON “IMPORTANCE OF WATER”

Resource person: Dr. BASAVANAND M DODAMANI, Associate Professor, Department of Civil Engineering, MIT Manipal.

The Civil Engineering Department of Alva's Institute of Engineering & Technology, Mijar, organized a Technical Talk on account of Water Day with Association of Consulting Civil Engineers, Mangalore on Thursday 20th March 2020 at Engineering Seminar hall, on “Importance of Water”.

Program Proceedings:

The function began at 3:30 P.M. The gathering was cordially welcomed by Dr. Umeshachandra of Civil Engineering department. Mr. Ramesh of Civil Engineering department introduced the resource person to the gathering. Dr. Ajith Hebbar Head of the Department was presided over the function.

A technical talk on “Importance of Water” presented by the resource person.

Water is our lifeline that bathes us and feeds us. In ancient cultures water represented the very essence of life. The Romans were the first to pipe water into their growing cities, especially with their aqueducts. They also realized that sewage water could cause damage to their people, and needed to be removed from large areas of people. Water has played a role not only in the history of countries, but in religion, mythology, and art. Water in many religions cleanses the soul through holy water. For example, the water at Lourdes, France is thought by many religions to be sacred water with healing powers. In Egyptian mythology, the Nu was the beginning of everything and represented water. It brought life to their people. Water has always been perceived as a gift from the gods as it rained from the heavens.

Session Closure:

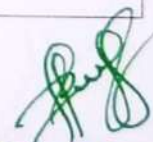

Dr. Basavanand M Dodamani was honored by Dr. Ajith Hebbar, Head of the department.

Students and staffs attended the technical talk "Importance of Water" delivered by Dr. Basavanand M Dodamani, Associate Professor, Department of Civil Engineering, MIT Manipal.

Outcome:

- On Water Day program technical talk arranged to students by resource person Dr. Basavanand M Dodamani, Associate Professor, Department of Civil Engineering, MIT Manipal, delivered a talk on Importance of Water.
- About 70 Students and Staff got to know the importance of water according to need and demand.
